

Meno Consulting to Contribute to Drew University Leadership Conference

Morgantown, W.Va., April 21, 2010 - Meno Consulting will contribute to Drew University's conference, entitled Leadership in a Time of Uncertainty. The conference will take place on Saturday, May 8th, on the Drew University campus.

Meno Consulting and managing partner Dan Leidl, a Drew alum, has been involved in the design of the conference, which is intended to bring various leaders together to discuss and develop leadership and management strategies that can be utilized in today's business climate. "Drew is providing an incredible opportunity for students and alumni to come together and share ideas. With both of the keynotes, and the panels that have been developed, there's going to be a lot of expertise that all of us can learn from," says Leidl. Keynote speakers who have committed to attend are Ed Moen, C'89, who is the co-founder of public relations firm Peppercom and Emilia Fabricant, C'88, President and Chief Merchandising Officer at Charlotte Russe.

Drew University is a liberal arts university with roughly 2,700 undergraduate students and 500 graduate students. The university is known for its small class sizes and personal attention to students, with a student to faculty ration of 12:1. Ninety-four percent of Drew's full-time faculty members hold terminal degrees in their areas of expertise, which makes high-quality mentorship the hallmark of a Drew education.

Meno Consulting represents a progressive approach to consulting services for corporate, non-profit, and athletic organizations, focusing on leadership and team development. The primary mission of Meno Consulting is to optimize individual and organizational performance through the promotion of effective teams and leaders. Meno Consulting was recently named to TrainingIndustry.com's 2010 Leadership Companies Watch List, recognition for Meno's achievements to date, and its refreshing approach to leadership and team development.

For more information on Meno Consulting and its services, go to www.menoconsulting.com.