

Meno Consulting Managing Partner to Play in 2010
FIL World Lacrosse Championships

Morgantown, W.Va., July 15, 2010 - Meno Consulting Managing Partner, Dan Leidl, will be playing for Team Ireland in the 2010 FIL World Lacrosse Championships (World Games). The World Games will take place in Manchester, UK from July 16th through July 21st, and this year's World Games will include 30 nations, the largest ever showing which reflects the incredible growth of Lacrosse throughout the world.

Leidl has enjoyed a lifelong career in lacrosse. He played at Drew University, and went on to a brief professional career with the New Jersey Storm of the National Lacrosse League. He has also been involved as an Irish National Team member in two previous World Games, and had the honor of acting as a head coach for the Irish National women's team in the 2009 World Games. Says Leidl, "I'm excited for this year's competition; I think we have the potential to be one of the strongest teams in Irish lacrosse history, and really have an opportunity to make a mark."

Leidl will be blogging about his experiences – from training camp to competition – for InsideLacrosse.com.

Meno Consulting represents a progressive approach to consulting services for corporate, non-profit, and athletic organizations, focusing on leadership and team development. The primary mission of Meno Consulting is to optimize individual and organizational performance through the promotion of effective teams and leaders. Meno Consulting was recently named to TrainingIndustry.com's 2010 Leadership Companies Watch List, recognition for Meno's achievements to date, and its refreshing approach to leadership and team development.

For more information on Meno Consulting and its services, go to www.menoconsulting.com.